 vs. ) ORDER
 RAFAEL MARTINEZ-OGARIO ) RE: MATERIAL WITNESS
 Defendant. ) APOLONIA REGULES-SALAZAR

This matter is before the court on the application of the United States for the arrest and detention of a material witness, Apolonia Regules-Salazar. The court having found the application set forth the materiality of the witness's testimony in the above-captioned matter and it may become impracticable to secure the presence of the witness by subpoena, an arrest warrant was issued for the arrest of witness Apolonia Regules-Salazar on April 17, 2007, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3144. Following the witness's arrest on the same date, the witness Apolonia Regules-Salazar was brought before the undersigned magistrate judge on April 17, 2007, for a hearing.

Apolonia Regules-Salazar appeared with her court-appointed counsel, Stephanie A. Martinez, and Assistant U.S. Attorney Frederick D. Franklin represented the United States. During the hearing, Victoria Funes, a certified interpreter in the Spanish language, was present by remote telephone hook-up.

The court took judicial notice of the application and affidavit and a detainer from the Bureau of Immigration and Custom Enforcement (ICE). Apolonia Regules-Salazar presented no evidence on the government's request that she be detained as a material witness.

I find that the testimony of Apolonia Regules-Salazar would be material in this criminal proceeding against Rafael Martinez-Ogarrio. I further find it may become impracticable to secure the presence of the witness by subpoena if the witness absconds to Mexico if she were released from custody on conditions. Since the ICE has placed a detainer with the U.S. Marshal for deportation proceedings regarding the witness and the witness has no roots in this community or state, I find there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure the presence of the witness for the upcoming criminal proceedings in this matter if he were released on conditions.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The witness, Apolonia Regules-Salazar, is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The witness shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with her counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the witness to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

2. Any motion or request for a deposition of the witness pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 15(a) and 18 U.S.C. § 1344 shall be served on all parties to this case.

DATED this 17th day of April, 2007.
